The 41st Annual Phoenix Metro Football Magazine relied heavily on our Coaches Questionnaire to obtain information for use in this publication. If your favorite high school isn't listed in this index, we didn't receive a response from your coach or athletic director. Therefore, we couldn't include a profile of your team. Just get those questionnaires in on time and we'll do our part to properly preview your upcoming season.

Been Waiting for 2011 Here It Is for Dennis Erickson's Sun Devils!

By David Kukulski

Coach Dennis Erickson is entering his fifth year as head football coach at Arizona State University.

Five years – the time it takes to build a solid college football program. Haven't you heard that before? You have to give a coach time to recruit his own players and fully institute his brand of football.

So 2011 always figured to be a big year for Erickson and his team. Erickson seemed to be ahead of the curve, when his Devils finished 10-3 and tied for the Pac-10 crown in 2007. But the next three years have produced less-than-glossy records of 5-7 in 2008, 4-8 in 2009 and 6-6 in 2010.

Many Sun Devil fans are restless, ready for a winning campaign and a big bowl game to complete the 2011 season. And that's exactly what we expect to happen.

Offensive coordinator Noel Mazzone brought his version of the spread offense to Tempe last year and the results were certainly encouraging. Steven Threet, an 11-game starter at quarterback, threw for 2,534 yards and 18 TDs in 2010. But he was forced to end his football career because of an issue with concussions.

The new starter is junior Brock

Late last year, QB Brock Osweiler (#17) looks upfield for an open target against UCLA. He turned in a great performance that day – passing for 380 yards and five TDs and leading ASU to a come-from-behind 55-34 victory. If Osweiler performs well this year, the Devils should be very, very good (Paynter's Pics).

Osweiller, who was brilliant in bringing the Devils back against UCLA after Threet was injured. His performance in the 2010 finale versus rival Arizona wasn't nearly as good, but he did lead his club to a big 30-29 double-overtime win in Tucson.

Osweiler (6-8, 240) has a strong arm and can hurt the opposition with his scrambling ability. His 2010 stats showed 797 yards passing for five scores. He did not throw an interception.

Behind Osweiler are three talented freshmen – Taylor Kelly (6-1, 195), Mike Bercovici (6-1, 200) and Michael Eubank (6-5, 243). Kelly redshirted a year ago. A true freshman, Bercovici graduated early from high school and showed off his big-time arm in spring practice. Eubank, regarded as one of ASU's best recruits, is just arriving on campus after leading Corona (CA) Centennial High School to a nearly-perfect 2010 season. Who will grab the backup position behind Osweiler?

Junior Cameron Marshall leads a solid contingent of running backs for Arizona State. Marshall (5-11, 212) is the returning regular; he ran for 787 yards and nine TDs last year, while also catching 21 passes for another 227 yards.

Sophomore Deantre Lewis (5-10, 193) was a valuable contributor a year ago (539 yards rushing, 370 yards receiving and six scores) and he was slotted to back up Marshall once again in 2011. But, unfortunately, Lewis was injured in the offseason and has been struggling to get back on the field. He didn't participate in spring practice and his status for the upcoming season is unknown at press time.

Fellow sophomore Kyle Middlebrooks (5-8, 175)) was outstanding in the spring and could see more duty at running back. Junior Jamal

ASU returns plenty of honors candidates this fall, including wide receiver Mike Willie (#1) and center Garth Gerhart (#52). Willie caught 36 passes for 442 yards and six scores in 2010, while Gerhart might be the Devils' best offensive lineman. Both are seniors (Paynter's Pics).

Miles (5-10, 178) is another dangerous weapon for the Sun Devil offensive attack.

Nearly everyone returns at the wide receiver posts, including anticipated starters Gerell Robinson (6-4, 222), Mike Willie (6-4, 211) and Aaron Pflugrad (5-10, 177) – all seniors. These three receivers combined for 94 catches, 1,158 yards and 13 six-pointers last year.

Others pushing for playing time are sophomore J.J. Holliday (6-0, 160), redshirt freshman Kevin Anderson (5-9, 175), senior George Bell (6-3, 204) and junior A.J. Pickens (5-10, 168). The ASU coaching staff was looking for a big year from senior T.J. Simpson, who checked in with 29 catches for 481 yards last fall. However, Simpson tore an ACL in spring practice and he could very well miss his entire senior season.

Senior Trevor Kohl (6-1, 238) returns at tight end; he's a valuable blocker, especially in the running game. His backups are sophomores Chris Coyle and Max Smith.

The offensive line should be ASU's best in years. Senior Garth Gerhart (6-2, 296) is outstanding; he might be the Pac-12's best center. Barring injury, others vying for starting positions are sophomore Evan Finkenburg (6-6, 286), junior Andrew Sampson (6-3, 296) and seniors Aderious Simmons (6-7, 305), Dan Knapp (6-5, 274) and Mike Marcisz (6-5, 287).

There are rumblings that senior Brice Schwab (6-7, 310) might redshirt if he doesn't earn a starting position in 2011. Last year, Schwab was a highly-regarded junior college transfer who was penciled in as a starter at one of the tackles. But he didn't perform up to expectations. He's now 30 pounds lighter and could be a player to watch for ASU either this year or next.

Defensively, the Devils have plenty of playmakers and could be one of the nation's best. To do so, they must limit missed assignments and show good discipline.

Of course, when you discuss the ASU defense, you start with Vontaze Burfict. It's difficult to believe Burfict will be back for his senior year in 2012. He's so good that he'll likely declare early for the NFL draft.

Burfict is in line to win a number of conference and national awards. Last year, the 6-3, 250-pounder finished with 90 stops, including 8.5 tackles behind the line of scrimmage.

He's surrounded by some very familiar faces – including high school teammates Brandon Magee (5-11, 230) and Shelly Lyons (6-2, 228). Other veterans competing for playing time are seniors Colin Parker (6-1, 223) and Oliver Aaron (6-0, 207). Talented youngsters also in the picture are sophomore Anthony Jones (6-2, 218) and redshirt freshman Wayne Bradford (6-0, 240), the heir apparent to Burfict.

The defensive line suffered a couple of losses from a year ago; in fact, stand-out Lawrence Guy surprisingly opted to leave a year early for the NFL. Senior DE James Brooks recently left the team and will not play in 2011.

But ASU is solid up front with the likes of DT William Sutton (6-2, 261), DE Junior Onyeali (5-11, 241), DE Jamarr Jarrett (6-5, 260) and DT Bo Moos (6-0, 279). Sutton sat out the 2010 campaign with academic issues, but the general consensus is he will be outstanding this fall. Onyeali won Pac-10

Freshman Defensive Player of the Year laurels as a part-time starter last season. Jarrett received some all-conference recognition for his much-improved play in 2010. Moos is a fine player who has worked his way up the depth charts and is looking for a big senior year.

Right now, there appears to be a big dropoff between the first- and secondstring defensive line. Developing good depth is essential to the Sun Devil cause. Watch for junior Corey Adams (6-3, 273), junior Toa Tuitea (6-3, 285), junior Greg Smith (6-3, 255), redshirt freshman Joita Te'i (6-4, 271), sophomore transfer Davon Coleman (6-3, 262) and possibly even true freshman Mo Latu (6-3, 306) to stage some ferocious battles for second-string status.

The performance of the players in the secondary will go a long way towards determining just how good the ASU defense will be. You might say that's true of any defense. Agreed. But it's a deal-maker or breaker for the Devils. Their front seven is good – really good – and their secondary still has much to prove.

I think most ASU fans were thrilled when All-Conference cornerback Omar Bolden (5-10, 195) turned down a chance to move on to the NFL and chose to return for his senior year. Unfortunately, Bolden – like Simpson – sufferd a torn ACL during spring practice. He probably won't play this year.

Vontaze Burfict (#7), ASU's All-America linebacker, closes in on another tackle. Burfict is set to lead the highly-respected Sun Devil defense in 2011 (Paynter's Pics).

So ... the corners figure to be junior Deveron Carr (5-11, 188) and sophomore Osahon Irabor (5-11, 173), while senior Eddie Elder (5-10, 182) is nearly a lock to start at one of the safety positions. The other safety slot will probably go to senior Clint Floyd (5-10, 193), junior Keelan Johnson (6-0, 199) or sophomore Alden Darby (5-10, 183).

Redshirt freshman Devan Spann (5-11, 170) gained some valuable experience in the spring at cornerback and could be a factor. Maybe a newcomer like CB Rashad Wadood (5-10, 170), S Ezekial Bishop (5-10, 184) or S Kevin Ayers (6-0, 200) will play a vital role in the months ahead, especially if injuries occur. Carr – in particular – has had a difficult time staying healthy over the past two seasons.

Both kickers are new, since Thomas Weber and Trevor Hankins used up their eligibility. The placekicker is Alex Garoutte, a talented but inexperienced freshman.

Josh Hubner, a transfer from Scottsdale CC, may need some time to adjust to Pac-12 football, but he possesses a very strong leg and certainly should get the job done.

Erickson has plenty of options as kick returners, namely Middlebrooks, Miles and maybe even JC transfer Rashad Ross (6-0, 164).

Hamilton, Desert Ridge, Brophy Prep

Favorites in First Year of Division I Play

Hamilton's Kendyl Taylor (#10) rushed for 828 yards and grabbed 53 passes for another 723 yards last year, good enough for 14 touchdowns (Paynter's Pics).

Whether it's 5A, 5A-1 or Division I football in Arizona, you better believe the HAMILTON Huskies will be a factor when the title is on the line. In a year when the AIA moves from classifications (5A-1 through 1A) to divisions (I through VI), Coach Steve Belles and his club will be chasing their seventh "big school" state championship in the past nine years. Hamilton's titles came in 2003, 2004, 2006, 2008, 2009 and 2010. They were second in 2005.

Gone are the likes of Christian Westerman (Auburn), Tyler Johnstone (Oregon), Cedric Parker (Air Force), Shaq Jenkins (ASU), Kyren Poe (NAU), Malcolm Holland (Air Force), John Archuleta (Fresno State), Nic Consenza (San Diego), Steven Oliver (San Diego) and Tyler Rutt (NAU).

But Belles still has plenty of weapons, led by WR/HB Kendyl Taylor (5-11, 180) and S Reggie Daniels (6-2, 176) – both seniors.

The Huskies have a nice collection of skill athletes returning on offense. Taylor is the most versatile; he can hurt the opposition as a runner, receiver or returner. The new quarterback will be Blake Kemp (6-2, 200), who showed great promise as a junior with 40 completions in 57 attempts for 686 yards and seven TDs. He did not throw an interception as Kyren Poe's backup in 2010.

The receiving corps is strong with Taylor, Nic Henson (6-2, 200), Josh Ralston (6-1, 174), Clayton Stanchik (5-9, 165) and Just-n Thymes (6-0, 155). Junior Frankie Felix (5-11, 185) is a solid running back and should eat up big chunks of yardage for the Huskies' rushing attack.

Up front, watch for senior Tyler Creamer (6-3, 265), junior Devon Finai (6-0, 285) and junior Patrick Joseph (6-4, 275) to set the pace.

The previously-mentioned Daniels is a playmaker on defense; he contributed 54 tackles and four interceptions last year.

DRHS's Jordan Becerra (#7) looks for open ground in last year's 5A-1 finale against Hamilton (Paynter's Pics).

Two of those picks were returned for touchdowns – one in the state semis and one in the state finals.

Others to watch include CB Elijah White (5-10, 175), CB Bobby Milus (5-11, 170), CB Cole Luke (5-10, 172), DL Jaxon Hood (6-1, 275), DL Calvin Thomas (6-3, 265) and DL Alex Burgoyne (6-0, 215).

This is another formidable bunch at Hamilton, which will be the heavy favorite to win its fourth straight state crown.

If anyone is going to unseat Hamilton, it just might be DESERT RIDGE. 2010 was a breakout year for the Jaguars, who advanced to the state finale in football for the first time. Coach Jeremy Hathcock has a good nucleus of players returning from that squad; maybe the 2011 Jags can stop the Hamilton run.

In fact, DRHS has a great group of skill position players led by QB/DB Parker Rasmussen (6-0, 180), RB/LB Joey Counts (5-10, 210) and QB/DB Jordan Becerra (5-11, 170). All are seniors with talent and experience and will definitely win their share of postseason honors.

The receiving corps is paced by seniors Damani Mosbey (6-3, 215), Rubin Rodriguez (5-10, 182), Austin Herrera (6-2, 215) and Rudy Jimenez (5-9, 170). Mosbey will also see action at defensive end, while Herrera is slated for duty at linebacker.

Others to watch include tackle Alex Barrett (6-3, 250, Sr.), lineman Nick Allen (6-6, 250, Jr.) and safety Anthony Hovorka (6-0, 170, Jr.). Barrett is among the Jaguars' best.

The outstanding pitch and catch combo of QB Tyler Bruggman (6-1, 185) to WR Devon Allen (6-1, 180) will be featured again at BROPHY PREP this fall.

In his first year at the helm for the Broncos, Bruggman connected on 96 of 189 passes for 1,304 yards and 11 scores. Allen snagged 60 aerials for 915 yards and six TDs. With success like that, it's no wonder than Coach Scooter Molander will continue to rely on the duo. Oh, by the way, they're both just juniors too.

Another junior – Marche Dennard (5-11, 200) – figures to lead the Broncos' running game, while WR Matt Auran (5-10, 175, Jr.), WR Fred Gammage (5-11, 165, Sr.), TE Robert Relf (6-3, 205, Jr.) and TE Andrew Curtis (6-3, 205, Jr.) will serve as additional targets for Bruggman. Auran will also handle the punting chores for Brophy.

In the trenches, the Broncos will be led by center Alex Rosner (5-10, 210, Jr.) and two-way tackle Dominic Riccitelli (5-11, 260, Jr.).

Also among the 35 returning lettermen are secondary mates Matt Cahal (6-2, 185) and Jake Faust (6-0, 180) – both seniors.

Molander sports a fine 50-18 mark in his coaching career at Brophy. Watch for the Broncos to take a big step forward from last year's 6-6 record.

"We should be much improved," said BASHA Head Coach Bernie Buskin. "We play a tougher schedule, but our work habits are unbelievably good. We are excited."

Buskin, with many successful years at Mesa Mountain View on his resume, has a sparkling 91-11 record as a coach in Arizona. His overall mark is a nifty 163-86.

He welcomes back a nice group of seniors, including RB/CB Devin Reed (5-10, 180), OT Evan Sarver (6-5, 255), OG Drew Mahooty (6-1, 270), QB Kyle Duran (6-1, 200) and WR Keenan Garland (5-10, 175). Reed and Garland are both super-quick.

Defensive standouts include Reed, SS Bryce Cole (6-1, 180, Sr.), CB Quinton Delke (5-10, 180, Sr.), FS Boston Whitlow (6-1, 180, Jr.), LB Blake Tamarkin (6-0, 210, Sr.), LB Garret Kaiser (5-11, 200, Sr.) and C Jared Humphries (5-11, 240, Sr.).

Well, Coach Norris Vaughn has really

Phoenix Metro Division I Top 15

Junior Tyler Bruggman (#14) brings talent and leadership to the quarterback position at Brophy Prep (Paynter's Pics).

gotten the job done at MOUNTAIN POINTE the last two years. He's 22-4 with the Pride and now stands at 200-91-2 in his head coaching career. MPHS finished 10-3 a year ago.

The word is already spreading about super-soph Jalen Brown, a 6-2, 174-pound wide receiver and safety. He's a dynamic player who appears to have a very bright future

Also scattered among the 22 returning lettermen are the likes of OL/DT Raynon Blackshire (5-11, 300), FB/LB Jordan Leal (6-0, 203), RB/QB Dillon Johnson (5-9, 168) and OL/DT R.J. Hollis (6-3, 285) – all seniors.

You might also pay attention to RB/DB Louis Sharpe, FB/LB A.J. Williamson, OL Bryce Hure, RB/DB Thomas Warren, FB/LB Chris Hangis, TE/DE Tale Lewis, OL/DL Mark Fraboni, OL/DL Jacob Davis, OL/DL Dee Harvey, LB DeSean Griffin, OL/DE Kyle Luis, QB Caleb Buck, WR/DB Travonn White, RB/DB Garrett Graig, OL/DT Natelle Curtis, RB/LB Wesley Payne, OL/DT Kenny Lacy, WR/DB Dejon Edward, WR/S Ben Trotter, RB/DB Landy Payne, TE/K Thair Blakes, OL Logan Huber and K Ryan Sheehan.

MPHS's Ahwatukee neighbors, the DESERT VISTA Thunder, will be really good too. Good size. Thirteen starters among 35 returning lettermen. Coach Dan Hinds should see a lot of success.

Michael Arredondo, a 6-1, 215-pound running back-linebacker, was last year's two-way Fiesta Region Player of the Year. Both OL/DL J.J. Dielman (6-4, 250) and QB Hunter Rodriguez (6-3, 225) have begun to field college offers, while WR/DB Matt Smith (5-8, 175) is back after earning some all-state recognition as a junior.

Hinds also anticipates big contributions from WR/DB Shawn Loomer (5-8, 160), TE/DE Ryan Ortega (6-2, 235), RB/DB Dominik Kerelak (6-0, 185), WR/DB Kalob Germinero (6-0, 185), OL/DL Zach Tamburo (5-10, 245) and TE/DE Lorenzo Melvin (6-2, 215). Germinero, Tamburo and Melvin are juniors.

At CHANDLER, long-time Coach Jim Ewan retired and the new head man is Shaun Aguano, who inherited some highly-regarded players.

We're talking about WR Javon Williams (6-5, 180), OT/DT Zach Hemmila (6-3, 300), DE Kisima Jayne (6-5, 240), RB/S Paul Perkins (6-0, 190), DE Richard Winston (6-4, 220) and WR/CB Lloyd Mills (5-10, 165).

Hemmila has already declared for the University of Arizona and Mills is headed to San Diego State. Williams, Jayne, Perkins and Winston haven't disclosed where they're headed, but they all will have college careers.

Overall, Aguano will suit up 38 varsity veterans from last year's 7-4 unit. A dozen starters are back and members of last season's 6-3 JV are also available.

Junior QB Darrel Garretsen (6-0, 190) takes over for Brett Hundley, CHS's all-state field general who has moved on to UCLA. Other Wolves to watch are RB/CB Devin Centers (5-10, 170), LB Tyler Holmes (6-0, 210) and RB/S Laron Tarkington (5-10, 180).

Billy Freeman just might be the best tight end in Arizona high school football this year. This very imposing 6-3, 240pound senior is a mainstay for RED MOUNTAIN, where Coach Ron Wisniewski is back for his second year.

The Mountain Lions finished with six wins in 11 outings in 2010 and Wisniewski has a total of eight returning regulars from that squad. Besides Freeman, RMHS has OT/DT Viliami Kolomatangi (6-3, 290), WR/DB Marcus Brantley (5-9, 185), C/DE Quin Ficklin (6-2, 230), junior MLB Dalton Kirk (6-2, 230) and DT Jonah Reinholz (6-0, 240). Both Kolomatangi and Brantley earned allregion laurels last fall.

Another East Valley school looking for playoff status is MESQUITE. The Wildcats, under the guidance of Mike Reardon, were 9-3 last year and have a couple of skill position players to show the way. Running back Alex Lopez (6-1, 195) and tight end Kody Kohl (6-3, 220) will light up the scoreboard. Lopez scampered for 1,552 yards and 21 touchdowns last year, averaging an impressive 8.7 yards per carry. Meanwhile, Kohl, who has committed to Arizona State, grabbed 19 passes for 248 yards in 2010.

MOUNTAIN VIEW will also be in the picture, thanks to the efforts of players like standout linebacker Jake Thomas (6-0, 205), who recorded 66 tackles and 10 sacks last season. The Toros were a disappointing 5-6 last year and are looking to recapture the type of elite status they enjoyed for many years. New Coach Chad DeGrenier will try to restore order.

The Knights at WESTVIEW are really in for a transitional year. Coach Jeff Bowen's team will face nine regular-season opponents they haven't played in the last two years. That's mainly because WHS is moving up from 5A-2 competition to the new Division I level.

But don't underestimate Westview, which will be led by DE Chuks Amaechi (6-2, 205), SS Jordan Keel (6-3, 190), FS Robbie Mendez (6-1, 185), RB Sevion Morris (5-10, 180, Jr.), OG Andrew Godniez (5-11, 210) and TE Ardis Palmer (6-1, 220, Jr.). After all, the Knights return 40 lettermen from a 2010 team that won 10 of 13 contests and advanced to the 5A-2 state semifinals. Bowen's teams always have good speed and this year's group certainly lives up to those standards.

Among the other stalwarts are RB Shane Miller (5-8, 155), CB Guillermo Cuevas (5-10, 175), DT Cody Rediger (6-2, 250), QB Blake Hahn (5-11, 175), K Jacob Szostek (5-11, 160), DE Malik Timmons (6-2, 215), OT Mario Rodriguez (6-0, 250), SE Clifford Coker (6-1, 170, Jr.), RB Devonte Coleman (5-9, 165, Jr.), OT Sergio

Hernandez (6-1, 240, Jr.) and LB Frankie Lopez (5-10, 195, Jr.).

All-everything tackle Andrus Peat (6-7, 310) will provide plenty of power as CORONA DEL SOL attempts to overcome last year's 1-10 slate. Peat is among the most highly-regarded players ever to play high school football in the State of Arizona, following in the footsteps of his brother, Todd Peat, Jr., now playing for the University of Nebraska.

New Head Coach Tom Joseph, over from his previous job at Mountain View, inherits 18 returning lettermen.

Obviously, some rebuilding must take place, but performers like Peat, TE/DE Avery Moss (6-3, 240), RB/LB Zach Hamm (5-11, 205) and WR/FS Nick Woods (6-2, 195) will help a great deal.

Joseph is also relying on LB Josh Reidell (5-10, 215), K/P Zac Von Allworden (6-3, 185), TE/DE Matt Seall (6-7, 190), RB Dominic Mercurio (6-0, 190), CB Jacob Fruth (5-9, 170), QB Kyle Busk (6-1, 185), WR Tyler Price (5-9, 175) and OT/DT Steve Rodriguez (6-1, 285) to help the Aztecs.

Coach Bobby Green has his guys at MOUNTAIN RIDGE ready to play. The linebacking corps of seniors Spencer Hammitt (6-1, 210), Taylor Rockwood (6-1, 210) and Alex Mugar (6-1, 210) will turn some heads this year. Hammitt is particularly outstanding.

Also back in uniform from last year's 8-2 bunch are WR/DB Wesley Meridith (6-0, 180, Sr.), RB Tre Favors (5-11, 170, Jr.), RB/DB Chase Russell (5-8, 180, Sr.), DB Cameron Fortuna (5-8, 180, Sr.), OG/DT Reed Buce (6-1, 220, Jr.) and OT/DT Vince Vasquez (6-0, 230, Jr.).

Altogether, Green welcomes back 26 lettermen, including 11 starters, from last fall's 8-2 squad.

It's about time for MESA to take another run deep into the playoffs. Coach Kelley Moore has four years on the job for the Jackrabbits and he's posted a 24-22 record. Overall, Moore's coaching mark stands at a very respectable 145-80.

His playmakers figure to be QB/DB Jeremy Noble (6-1, 182), OG/DE Talaiasi Taveli (6-1, 273), RB/DB Donovan Trice (5-10, 170), OT/DT Joe Speakman (6-2, 296), OG/DT Adam Pietrangelo (5-9, 240), WR/DB Bryan Hutchison (5-7, 177), OT/DT Jerick Greasham (6-6, 320) and OG/DE Will Taufa (6-0, 211) – all seniors.

The prospects at HIGHLAND are good, where Coach Pete Wahlheim will battle once again against a number of tough East Valley schools. The Hawks have 16 returnees from last season's 4-6 club.

Wahlheim anticipates good performances from skill position players like Jake Vehonsky (5-10, 180), Merrick Madrid (5-11, 190), Tyler Hatch (6-1, 190), Joe Gruzga (6-3, 210) and Mason Darveaux (5-10, 180). Madrid is the quarterback, while Vehonsky and Darveaux are set at running back. Hatch and Gruzga are receivers. Seniors Kyle Hudson (5-11, 220) and Josh Menden (6-2, 220) are the mainstays in both lines.

BOULDER CREEK moves into Division I competition with 29 returning letterwinners from last season's 9-4 outfit. Head Coach Dan Friedman has 14 starters back on the field along with members of last year's 8-1 junior varsity.

A couple of his finest players are WR/SS Marquis Bundy (6-4, 190) and QB Trevor Bonifasi (5-11, 175) – a dependable passing game combination. Besides Bundy, other BCHS receivers are junior Isaiah Huston (5-10, 175) and sophomore Tyler Whiley (6-0, 170).

Additional Jaguars of note are OL/DL Austin Farlof (6-3, 260), DB Jimmy Boulton (5-9, 175), OLB Sean Pratt (5-11, 170), C/DL Vincent Paterno (5-11, 245), DB Chase Wagner (5-9, 170), OL/DL Zach Labno (5-10, 220), OL/DL Joe Cantelme (5-8, 235), RB Stephen Landeros (5-8, 180, Jr.), RB/LB Isaiah Birkel (5-11, 180, So.) and LB Brandon Fuller (5-10, 185).

"We should put up a good fight this year," said DOBSON Head Coach Alex Jacobson. His Mustangs were 3-7 last time out, but a dozen starters are back and raring to go.

Mainstays include a good blend of skill position players and capable linemen, namely RB/LB Siaosi Feinga (6-2, 235), RB/LB T.J. Thomas (5-11, 195), WR/DB Cullen Richoux (5-10, 170), QB Gabe Martinez (6-0, 170), OL/DL Shawn Garrett (6-2, 250), K/P Brian Franklin (6-1, 160), OG Daniel Peru (6-2, 260), C Tyler Murphy (6-1, 240), RB Yaw Mensah (5-10, 195), OL Tyler Bernardi (6-2, 240) and WR Martin Tew (6-1, 180). All are seniors except for Martinez, Mensah and Tew.

Watch for Coach Dana Zupke and his PINNACLE Pioneers to contend for a playoff berth. Zupke and company posted a 6-5 mark in 2010, but, with 30 varsity veterans still available for duty, it's very possible PHS will climb higher over the .500 mark. Zupke has eight years under his belt at Pinnacle now and his teams have won 53 of 87 contests.

His best returnees appear to be WR/LB Addison Palomino (6-4, 200, Sr.), huge OT/DT Nick Ziegenbein (6-6, 310, Sr.), QB Jackson Harley (6-3, 180, Sr.), WR/DB Bryce Colceri (5-11, 175, Sr.), OG/DT Carson Purtell (6-3, 270, Jr.), WR/DB Nick Cappellini (6-0, 170, Sr.), WR/DB Harry Plaza (5-11, 165, Sr.), TE/LB Matt Mercurio (6-2, 215, Sr.), FB/LB Jon Miller (5-10, 200, Sr.), OL/DE Nico Bruge (6-2, 230, Sr.), RB/DB Josh Hoekstra (5-11, 180, So.) and OL/DE Cole Neubauer (6-2, 225, So.).

One of the new kids on the block is VALLEY VISTA, where Coach Jason Wilke continues to build his program. The Monsoon were 3-7 last year, their fourth football campaign in the school's short history. Now, in '10, Wilke will see plenty of familiar faces – 22 returning lettermen, 14 of which are starters.

VVHS's anticipated standouts are WR Giovanni Pascascio (6-1, 170, Sr.), LB Jack Hastings (6-0, 195, Sr.), FB Brandon Bendele (5-9, 215, Sr.), FS Myle Spearman (5-10, 170, Jr.) and QB Dalvin Richardson (6-0, 190, Jr.).

New Head Coach Richard Helton takes over at TREVOR BROWNE. The Bruins were respectable last fall, finishing with a 4-6 slate. But a number of young players will have to mature quickly to get TBHS to the Division I playoffs in '11.

Just nine letterwinners are back, headed by skill position mates RB/DB Cedric Garrett (5-11, 170, Sr.), WR/S Silvester Sosa (6-0, 180, Sr), QB/DB Jack Peru (5-6, 140, Jr.), FB/LB Efren Salayandia (5-7, 170, Sr.) and FB/LB Sam Longoria (5-11, 250, Sr.).

In the trenches, watch for big OL/DL Noah Cooper (6-1, 324, Jr.), OL/LB Jonathan Colombo (5-10, 220, Sr.) and OL/DL Aaron Gonzalez (5-10, 260).

"If we stay healthy and those two young kids mature at quarterback and receiver, mixed in with the veterans and the O-Line plays like I think we can, we plan on getting back to the playoffs like we did two years ago," said Coach Tony Tabor at DESERT MOUNTAIN.

The Wolves suffered through a tough 0-10 campaign in 2010, after graduating 19 starters from the '09 squad. Tabor is counting on QB Kyle Allen (6-1, 185, Jr.) and WR Mark Andrews (6-4, 210, Jr.) to play key roles.

Others to watch include REC/S Cody Zimmerman (5-11, 170, Sr.), RB/CB Daaim Brown (5-9, 175), C Shane Kerley (6-3, 280, Sr.) K Matt Foley (6-0, 170), LS/L Easton Wahlstrom (6-1, 250), OL/DL Ryan Scheetz (6-4, 250, Jr.) and OL/DL Ricky John (6-3, 250, Jr.).

Another team looking for better days after a frustrating 0-10 season a year ago is TOLLESON. Coach Mike Brown has a dozen letterman back in uniform, led by the running back tandem of John Flowers (5-11, 175) and Eric Ivy (5-8, 190).

The quarterback figures to be Austin Cromack (5-10, 155, Sr.) and his primary target should be Gabe Lopez (5-9, 150, Sr.). Paving the way up front are senior tackles Taylor Price (6-2, 276), Edwin Medina (6-0, 265) and Roger Garcia (6-1, 230).

Ten starters are back for Peter Jonovich at SKYLINE, 1-10 last year. Top-notch play is needed from RB Tanner Thomas (5-8, 150), WR Braedon Bowman (6-3, 190), OT Cooper Sinsabaugh (6-3, 215), OT Quinton August (6-2, 220), RB/LB Russell Babtiste (6-0, 190), RB/DB Jake Mapes (5-10, 180), TE/LB Ben Williams (6-1, 180), DE Anthony Moreno (6-2, 220) and WR Mitch Jasper (6-0, 195).

Chaparral, Centennial, Marcos de Niza Ahead of the Pack in Division II Competition

Chaparral's Connor Brewer (#7), one of Arizona's best, escapes a would-be tackler from Centennial and looks upfield for an open receiver in last year's 5A-2 finale at the University of Phoenix Stadium (Paynter's Pics).

How do you top a perfect 14-0 record? How about 27-1 over the past two years, with 5A-2 state titles each year? An outstanding 49-6 mark in Coach Charlie Ragle's five years on campus? State Football Championships in 1999, 2000, 2002, 2009 and 2010 with a second-place finish in 2008?

As I'm sure you've noticed, the last decade in Arizona prep football has produced some of the most dominant programs in our state's history. And, without question, CHAPARRAL qualifies as one of those elite schools.

You never know until you play the games, but more of the same appears to be on the horizon for the Firebirds. Bigtime college prospects like WR/DB/KR Davonte' Neal, QB Connor Brewer and DL Jarvis Lewis should keep Chaparral opponents scrambling throughout the 2011 campaign.

We selected Neal (5-10, 175) as the 2010 Arizona Player of the Year after a brilliant junior campaign. He's basically being recruited by everyone in the BCS. Why not? As a junior, he totaled 551 yards, averaged 9.3 yards per carry and tallied 12 six-pointers on the ground. As a receiver, he checked in with 37 catches for a whopping 907 yards and 11 more scores. Defensively, he grabbed five interceptions. Neal also had another 758 yards and six TDs on returns. A one-man wrecking crew!

Brewer (6-2, 190) is back to lead the Firebird offense once again. In 2010, he contributed 148 completions in 222 attempts for 2,677 yards. He threw 37 touchdown passes against just six interceptions. A terrific leader, he's already committed to play next year for the University of Texas.

Lewis, a 6-4, 240-pound (or bigger) transfer from Raymond Kellis HS, has decided to play his college football at ASU. But, first, this extraordinary defensive lineman figures to have a field day with Division II competition. He had double-figure sacks as a junior and should register an impressive number at CHS.

Of course, this trio has plenty of support, namely RB/LB Lucas Petrullo (6-1, 210, Sr.), WR Jake Roh (6-3, 190, Jr.), WR Zach Buzzard (5-9, 185, Sr.), FB/LB Cody Ippolito (5-10, 220, Sr.) and S Ikaia Nawahine (5-01, 170, Sr.).

Mainstays up front include Lewis, Pete Greene (6-3, 265), Jordan Bronowitz (6-3, 290), Eric Combs (5-11, 260) and Weston Hamilton (6-1, 250) – all seniors.

Okay, so does Coach Richard Taylor have enough weapons at CENTENNIAL this year to top Chaparral in a head-to-head matchup? The Coyotes are on a terrific run of their own – second in 2005 and 2010, champions in 2006, 2007 and 2008.

In his 20 years at Centennial, Taylor carries a sparkling 139-56-3 record into the 2011 season. He'll have 30 lettermen back from his 12-2 outfit of a year ago. Senior Zach Hoffpauir (5-11, 200) is generally regarded as CHS's best returnee this fall. He's counted upon to play running back, wide receiver and safety. Hoffpauir most likely will have a choice to make in the months ahead between college football and professional baseball. Either Justin Sanchez (5-11, 180) or Troy Hawthorne (6-3, 185) should land the starting role at quarterback. Taylor also expects WR Hayden Sevacki (6-0, 180) and RB Jalen Ortiz (5-10, 178, Jr.) to contribute to the offensive attack.

Linemen of note are Devin Leon (6-3, 255), Josh Stevens (5-10, 240), Marcus Farria (6-5, 245, Jr.) and Spencer Nathe (6-3, 260, Jr.). The linebacking pair of senior Walter Nunley (6-0, 200) and junor Wes Westbrook (6-0, 200) should be invaluable on defense. Graduates of last season's 9-0 JV will also be in the mix.

The MARCOS DE NIZA Padres should be right there again with Chaparral and Centennial. Coach Roy Lopez's squad hasn't captured that elusive state crown, but they certainly shouldn't be overlooked. The Padres lost a tight one, 10-6, to Centennial in last year's 5A-2 quarterfinals. The year before, they bowed to Chaparral in the finals. In fact, Lopez's record over the past four years is a remarkable 49-9.

Headliners for MDN are LB Adam Pavlenko (6-0, 220), QB Tommy Thornton (6-3, 210) and WR Paul Elvira (6-1, 169). Pavlenko is an all-state performer with college offers from more than a half-dozen schools. Thornton is called "a great leader" by his coach and is poised for a top-notch senior season. Elvira is just a junior, but he's started since his freshman year, so he's certainly a veteran.

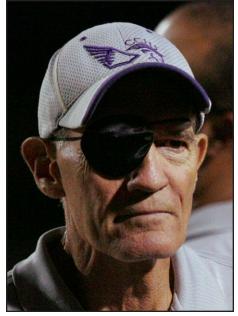

Others to watch include sophomores Josh Eckley, Dominique Fenstermacher, Alex Kleinpeter and Messiah Smith, as well as upperclassmen Daniel Villalobos, Rashad Baker, Angelo Zacchio, Richard Doller, Andrew Molina, Maurice Lee, Antonio Warner, Josh Kirkwood, Priest

Making one giant leap are the Saints of NOTRE DAME PREP. A powerhouse at the old 4A-2 level, Coach Scot Bemis and his squad are now positioned in the Division II ranks, along with former 5A-2 stalwarts Chaparral, Centennial and Marcos de Niza. Bemis returns 29 veterans from last season's 11-2 club.

Foremost among the returnees is Jordan Gehrke, a 6-2, 185-pound senior quarterback. He's a good one. Bemis, who has now posted a nifty 55-20 mark in six years at Notre Dame, also is counting on the likes of C/DE Jack York (6-3, 260), OG/DT Brady Gazlay (6-1, 260), OG/DT Connor Gallagher (5-10, 255, Jr.), TE/DE Parker Zellers (6-1, 230, Jr.), FB/LB Nic Orlando (5-10, 215), TE Grant Martinez (6-5, 215, Jr.), HB/LB Luke Taffuri (6-1, 215, Jr.), TB/LB Nic Cole (5-10, 195, Jr.), OL/DE Kevin Sullivan (6-2, 225) and OL/DT Josh Roeckner (6-0, 225) to make 2011 a very good year.

MILLENNIUM, under the direction of Coach George Martinez, looks like a solid team, definitely capable of contending for a playoff spot. Coach George Martinez is back for a second year at the helm after guiding the Tigers to a good 7-4 ledger in '10. An impressive 18 starters are back in uniform this time out.

Millennium has good speed, especially in WR Kieren Duncan (5-10, 170), FB Zach Mefford (6-2, 210), LB Jacob Fitzgerald (6-0, 190), SS Daniel Peterson (5-9, 185), TE Aaron Hart (6-2, 185) and RB Alex Magana (5-6, 155) – all seniors.

Other standouts include OL/DL Aaron Bruckhauser (6-2, 240), LB James Dopson (6-2, 230), QB Chad Hons (6-1, 185), OL Stephon Massey (5-11, 235), DL Gabe Hughes (6-2, 280, Jr.) and LB Antonio Diggs (5-10, 195, Jr.).

The Champions of CESAR CHAVEZ will be formidable. Veteran Coach Jim Rattay has a nice group of 27 returning letterwinners, including a fine field general in Chandler Hovik (6-1, 190) and a super-quick receiver in Jay Jay Jordan (5-10, 175) – both seniors.

Although CCHS recorded just four wins in 11 outings a year ago, 27 returning lettermen and members of last year's 8-1 JV should see more success in 2011. There's a nice group of receivers; in addition to Jordan, Hovik can throw to Tod Slaughter (6-1, 185), Johnny Cruz (6-2, 180), Richard Lopez (6-3, 205, Jr.) and Rodrick Griffin (5-10, 165, Jr.).

The running game features Kevin Broom (5-11, 200) and Jacob Garcia (5-9, 180, Jr.). Junior Arthuro Macias (6-1, 180) will back up Hovik at quarterback and see some significant playing time in the secondary.

Rattay also likes the work of linemen Zach Perea (6-1, 230), Jay Cortez (6-1, 225, Jr.), Augie Juan (6-3, 275) and Mario Nava (6-2, 260, Jr).

Coach Steve Casey has a fine nucleus returning at HORIZON, where the Huskies finished with seven wins in 11 outings last season.

Horizon features WR Dushaun Brown (6-0, 170), WR Julian Perea-Schaefer (6-0, 170), WR/DB Josh Glidden (5-10, 180), LB Brett Poh (5-9, 180, Sr.) and K/P Jeff Stratford (5-10, 150) – all seniors

"We opened the high school in 2006 with freshman only," said Kevin Belcher, head mentor at BETTY FAIRFAX. "I've been at the school all four years. Our varsity was 6-4 in 2009 and 8-2 in 2010."

Now the Stampede suits up 18 returning lettermen, including 10 starters, as well as plenty of young talent from undefeated freshman (10-0) and junior varsity (9-0).

The best of the best are OL/DL Dwight Melvin (6-2, 265), TE/DE Anthony Arledge (6-3, 230), QB Kurtis Walls (6-2, 195) and RB/LB Brandon Jones (5-8, 190). Melvin made our Friday Night Heroes list and has committed to the University of Arizona to continue his football career. Arledge has offers from the likes of Air Force, UTEP, New Mexico, NAU and Montana.

Also keep an eye on linemen Errun Scroggins (6-0, 260), Trevan Reagan (6-2, 270) and Chris Shipp (6-0, 255).

Scatback Trae Armstrong, a 5-8, 170-pounder with outstanding speed, should keep things exciting at DEER VALLEY this year. As a junior, he rushed for 1,521 yards and 18 scores and averaged 33 yards per kickoff return, including one for 93 yards and a touchdown. He also scored twice as a receiver. Armstrong should see his share of honors in '11.

The Skyhawks split their 12-game schedule last season, but prospects for improvement are good, thanks to the presence of 30 returning lettermen.

Coach Joe Kersting is also enthusiastic about the play of Auston Hillman (6-1, 187) at quarterback. There's plenty of depth at running back and receiver; in addition to Armstrong, DVHS features the likes of FB/LB John Reed (6-0, 210), WR/CB Kenny Bouden (6-1, 180), WR/S Jacques Bruce (6-1, 180), TB/LB Chris Landram (5-10, 190) and WR/S Kyle Vitathum (6-0, 170) – all seniors.

The Skyhawks are counting on OT/DE Steven Arnold (6-1, 270), DL Caleb Cattermale (6-1, 210) and DL Jeremy Wood (6-1, 210) to stay strong up front.

Coach Zack Threadgill at APOLLO welcomes back QB Jon Brown (6-0, 217) and 18 other letterwinners as we get ready to kick off the 2011 season. Brown is really, really good; he threw for 2,040 yards and 22 TDs last year and ran for another 1,128 yards and 14 more scores.

Those numbers were significant in helping the Hawks win nine of 12 games. Surrounding Brown are big-play performers like RB Richie Martinez (5-8, 177, Sr.), WR DE Abe Mendivil (6-1, 201, Jr.), TE/LB Sam Martinez (6-0, 192, Sr.) and WR/DB Dylan Katzenberger (5-8, 163, Sr.). The duo of C/DL Daniel Cruz (6-0, 271, Sr.) and OL/DL Jon Sekona (6-2, 279, So.) will key the play in the trenches.

Gone is talented WR/DB Gary Chambers, who is now an ASU Sun Devil, from the IRONWOOD Eagle lineup. And he will be missed, but Coach Ian Curtis can celebrate the return of 31 lettermen back in uniform this fall. We think IHS has a chance to substantially improve on last season's 4-6 mark.

The Eagles have outstanding size in linemen Sterling Wright (6-0, 195, Sr.), Luis Armendariz (5-9, 215, Sr.), OL/DL Elijah Cox (6-6, 350, Jr.), OL Bill Duckworth (6-2, 310, Jr.) and Blake Duckworth (6-2, 310, Jr.).

However, Ironwood has a nice group of skill position players too, namely QB/LB Kyle Zoellner (5-10, 165, Sr.), RB/LB Michael Alexander (5-10, 245, Jr.), RB/DB Matt Paparella (5-10, 180), TE/LB Zac Guffy (6-2, 195, Sr.), RB/LB Frank Ngoga (5-10, 185, Jr.) and RB/LB Matt

Johnson (6-0, 190, Sr.). Alexander is definitely a player to watch; he could be a very special performer for the Eagles over the next two years.

The PERRY Pumas also graduated their best player from a year ago; that would be DL Mo Latu, a big 6-3, 310-pounder who has also moved on to Arizona State University. But Coach Preston Jones will still field a very competitive club, capable of approaching or topping last year's 7-4 ledger.

Altogether, 25 varsity veterans are back. Backfield mates Josh Uhlora (6-0, 170) and Max Arredondo (5-10, 175) will man the quarterback and running back positions, respectively.

Uhlora will be throwing the ball to wideouts Kaleb Garcia (6-2, 180), Cody Weisenberger (5-9, 165) and tight end Shelby Dillard (6-1, 225).

There's a potentially-good team returning at RAYMOND KELLIS, where Coach Jason Golden has 18 letterwinners on hand. Big tackle Wesley Kollary (6-4, 275) keys the offensive line, which opened up enough holes for FB Marcus Hackney (6-0, 200) and RB Wayman Payne (5-8, 165) to combine for over 1,600 yards rushing in '10.

Junior Rikiya Bain (5-8, 140) and senior Stanley Aladi (5-9, 175) should also receive some carries in the Cougar running game. The quarterback figures to be senior Kyle Jackson (6-0, 150).

Others to watch include OL/DL Andrew Church (6-2, 250, Sr.), CB D.J. Hampton (5-9, 170, Jr.), LB Erik Mendivil (5-10, 185, Jr.) and LB Steve Munoz (5-10, 200, Jr.).

Mike Giovando returns for his second year as coach at SHADOW MOUNTAIN. The Matadors were 6-5 last fall and return some talented performers and a couple of huge tackles.

Watch for RB Gena Adams (5-9, 180, Jr.), WR/S Dylan Ackert (6-1, 185, Sr.), RB/LB Christian Iafrate (5-10, 190, Sr.) and DB Calvin Lindsey (6-1, 160, Jr.) to make some big plays for SMHS. Bookend tackles Jerry Sfransky (6-6, 270) and Gabe Murphy (6-7, 330) will provide protection.

Coach Chuck Apap at BRADSHAW MOUNTAIN has 10 returning regulars, including QB/DB Tyler Audsley (5-10, 160), OT Jacob Julian (6-4, 285) and DB Damian Otero (5-11, 155) – all seniors who won various honors for outstanding play a year ago.

The Bears captured nine wins in 12 attempts last year, so it won't be easy for this year's squad to top that. BMHS has now reached the playoffs six years in a row.

Definitely an honors candidate, Chandler Hovik of Cesar Chavez could put up some very big numbers for the Champions in 2011 (Paynter's Pics).

Mainstays this year should be DB Garrett Spence (6-1, 185, Sr.), FB Troy Boyle (5-9, 165, Jr.), RB Riley Curry (5-10, 175, Jr.), TE Taylor Moore (6-4, 190, Jr.), LB Carlos Gonzalez (5-6, 180, Sr.), OT Cody Perry (6-0, 230, Jr.), OG Zach Llewellyn (6-1, 220, Sr.), K Andrew Bogdanov (6-1, 185, Sr.), C Blake Krofchik (6-3, 230, Jr.), LB Lupe Valdez (5-10, 185, So.), WR Kyle Smith (6-2, 185, Sr.) and DL Marcus Brunson (6-0, 320, Sr.).

There's a new head coach on campus at CACTUS SHADOWS, where Greg Davis assumes the top job. The Falcons have been a good, steady program in recent years, so Coach Davis will see if he can lead them to success at the Division II level.

Just five regulars return from last year's 7-4 outfit, but CSHS has a solid corps of athletes to lead the way. Offensively, the anticipated standouts are QB Bryce Kinsler (5-10, 180, Jr.), RB R.J. Anderson (5-7, 165, Jr.), WR Kyle Gladstone (6-2, 180, Jr.) and WR Connor Cozen (5-11, 160, Sr.).

Heavy contributions are also expected from two-way lineman Saul Monteon (6-0, 240, Sr.), TE/DE Tommy Pritchard (6-2, 220, Sr.), LB Ashton Keown (5-9, 163, Sr.), OT/DL Landon Weaver (6-0, 225, Sr.) and sophomore RB/DB Joe Kuhlmann.

Michael Hudnutt and his WILLOW CANYON squad are looking forward to 2011. The Wildcats have yet to make a big splash at the state level, but this is a football program that could take off at any time.

Hudnutt, who sports a 27-26 record at WCHS after four years at the West Valley school, welcomes back an impressive 14 starters from last year's 4-6 team. There's good speed in players like WR/DB Diandre Harding (6-1, 190, Sr.), RB Antony Thompson (5-9, 185, Jr.), DB Gaetano Florio (5-9, 150, Jr.) and DB Austin Henuye (5-11, 165, Jr.).

Additional contributions should come from OL Gabe Swaba (6-1, 240, Sr.), OL/LS Austin Mathews (5-11, 240, Sr.), OLB Austin Desaulniers (6-0, 195, Sr.), DL Brian Keyes (6-2, 245, Jr.) and LB Tyler Inman (6-0, 190, Sr.).

Back for a second year at SOUTH MOUNTAIN is Coach Daryl Phillips. His Jaguars took three of 10 contests in 2010 and are looking for better results this time out. A promising group of 20 lettermen, including 13 regulars, would like nothing more than to make the first year of Division II competition a playoff year for South.

It that's going to happen, watch for DB Markeys Little (5-8, 159, Sr.), L Jesus Navarro (5-10, 235, Sr.), DE Mike Marshall (6-2, 220, Sr.), FB John Crain (5-9, 200, Sr.), LB Derek Craig (6-0, 200, Jr.), LB Matckihlea Kulitea (5-9, 190, Jr.), REC Tyler Simpson (6-0, 190, Sr.), C Damion Delacruz (5-10, 220, Sr.), DB Amado Gonzales (5-10, 168, Sr.) and DB Scott Simpson (5-9, 150, Sr.).

Next up are the CAMELBACK Spartans ... 16 varsity veterans back from a 3-7 squad. The good news is 14 starters are included in that group.

Coach Brandon McNutt is happy to have TE/DE Antonio Zepeda (6-5, 235, Jr.), WR/SS Angel Medina (6-0, 180, Jr.), RB/LB Benjamin Gardner Jr. (5-10, 190, Sr.), QB/DL Benjamin Diffenderfer (6-1, 195, Jr.), OL/NT Zach Ohrtman (6-1, 220, Sr.), RB/LB Damon Hendrix Jr. (6-1, 190, Sr.) and OL/DE Bryan Vela (6-1, 200, Sr.) on his team.

Others to watch include RB/DB Antuan Woods (5-9, 175, Jr.), RB/LB Jose Bonilla (5-8, 180, So.), RB/DB Harry Gould (5-6, 160, Sr.), OL/DL Mario Navarrette (5-10, 280, Sr.) and FB/LB Josh Serafin (5-10, 185, Sr.).

Coach Michael Gunderson would like to lead his Fighting Lobos to a little more success at LA JOYA. The coach is back for his second campaign after guiding LJHS to a 2-8 mark a year ago. Nine starters are back and raring to go in 2011, so we'll see what happens.

Gunderson lists TE/DE Pedro Guerrero (6-0, 200, Sr.), RB/SS Ocean Haire (5-9, 170, Sr.), RB/LB Deryn McGee (5-11, 195, Jr.), C/DT Juan Rangel (5-11, 280, Jr.) and WR/FS Zach Venegas (6-0, 180, Jr.) as his best returning players.

McCLINTOCK also posted a 2-8 slate in 2010, so new head mentor Matt Lewis is working with the 12 returning letterwinners and their teammates to produce a better outcome in 2011.

The Chargers feature WR/DB Bryce Poston (6-0, 175, Sr.), OL/DL Solomon Levin-Sanders (6-1, 225, Sr.), OL/DL Andre Collier (6-2, 235, Sr.), WR/DB Joe Wells (5-10, 165, Sr.) and OL/DL Devin Strickland (6-1, 205, Sr.).

Saguaro, Cactus, Williams Field, T-Bird To Battle It Out at the Division III Level

With John Sanders in charge, the Saguaro Sabercats have put together four remarkable seasons, culminated by three state championships. SHS also won the crown is 2006 under the guidance of Mike Reardon (Paynter's Pics).

Talk about remarkable runs! SAGUARO is on one of the more memorable ones in state history. Mike Reardon led the Sabercats to a state title in 2006.

Then Coach Reardon left and John Sanders became the man in charge. In his four years at the Scottsdale school, Saguaro has been nearly unstoppable, winning 50 of 54 games and taking home the state championships in 2007, 2008 and 2010.

Can they do it again in 2011? We don't know, but SHS is certainly one of the favorites in the new Division III battleground.

Gone are QB Tim Rubin and his nearly 5,000 yards of total offense last year. He merely passed for 2,369 yards and 22 scores and ran for 2,512 yards and 34 more TDs. Rubin was unbelievable, completing 70% of his passing attempts.

All-America lineman Cyrus Hobbi has also departed and landed in Los Angeles to go to school and play football for USC. Brock Haman now plays for the University of Arkansas. Danny Clark is a walk-on at ASU. And so on.

But the cupboard is far from bare. The Sabercats still have Mr. Everything D.J. Foster, a 6-0, 185-pound running back-defensive back. Foster rushed for 1,421 yards last year, averaging a remarkable 11.3 yards per carry. He caught 43 passes for another 730 yards. He returned a punt and a kickoff for a TD. Altogether, he crossed the goal line 29 times. Foster also had 60 tackles on defense and snared seven interceptions.

He'll have some help from RB/DB Elijah McDade, a 5-10, 186-pounder. Also contributing will be big linemen Connor Roberts (6-3, 290, Sr.), Alex Anderson (6-4, 270, So.), Tanner Case (6-1, 305, Sr.), Roderick Roanhorse (6-2, 280, Jr.) and Devin Brunetti (6-1, 272, Jr.).

Coach Larry Fetkenhier should field another exellent team at CACTUS. The Cobras breezed through the 2010 regular season and the first round of the 2010 4A-2 playoffs before being shocked by Desert Edge, 21-20, in the quarterfinals. Now they'll test their talent against brand new Division III opponents. Look for all-state lineman Denzel Dotson (6-2, 300) to provide plenty of power for CHS this year.

Coach Steve Campbell has done a terrific job at WILLIAMS FIELD, where the Black Hawks have quickly established themselves as a team to watch every year.

At press time, it was unclear if All-Everything lineman Jordan Poland (6-8, 330) was going to return to WFHS for his junior year or move to San Diego. Obviously, his loss would be tough to overcome for Campbell and company. Certainly, senior RB Alex Howard (6-1, 195) will do some major damage this year after rushing for 1,407 yards (11.1 per carry) and 26 TDs in '10, when Williams Field very nearly won its first football state championship.

Another key veteran is wideout Bryce Layton, a 5-11, 150-pounder who caught 59 passes for 956 yards and 10 six-pointers as a junior.

THUNDERBIRD entered the 4A-2 playoffs last year as the 13th seed, with a modest 6-4 record. So it was four upsets in a row when the Chiefs, under the guidance of Coach Brent Wittenwyler, knocked off #4 Liberty (45-21), #12 Higley (35-34), #8 Desert Edge (24-17, 2OT) and #2 Williams Field (25-22 OT). It was one of the most thrilling playoff runs in our state's proud history.

Now THS must battle the likes of former 4A-1 stalwarts Saguaro and Peoria, as well as 4A-2 pacesetters Cactus, Williams Field and Liberty for honors in the new Division III alignment.

Of course, having one of the state's best running backs back in uniform doesn't hurt the cause at all. That would be 5-, 180-pound Connor Hustead, who rushed for 1,607 and 19 touchdowns in '10. He figures to pick up where he left off last fall.

Also back in uniform are senior line-backers Troy Custer (5-9, 175) and Justin Ganados (5-9, 185), who combined for over 200 tackles last year. In fact, they were the two leading tacklers on the team.

Others to watch include ATH Jaquan Pugh (5-9, 175, Sr.), RB/WR Kani Benoit (6-0, 190, Jr.), OL Chris Livermore (6-4, 245, Sr.), OL Jacob Molina (6-3, 235, Jr.), SS Robby Barnes (5-9, 180, Sr.), FS Eric Wagner (5-9, 175, Jr.), WR/CB Scott Beaudoin (5-9, 175, Sr.), OL Kyle Whiting (6-0, 245, Sr.), CB Rick Cook (5-11, 170, Sr.) and DL Jonah Draper (6-3, 275, Sr.).

The LIBERTY Lions have some quality returnees from last season's 9-2 club. Coach Danny Filleman's offense starts with field general Andre Gattie (5-9, 175, Sr.), who passed for 1,151 yards and 10 TDs a year ago. He also ran for 1,012 yards and 14 more scores.

His primary target this year should be senior wideout Paul Panaccione (5-10, 170, Sr.), who grabbed 31 aerials for 633 yards and 10 TDs last time out. Pannaccione also contributed four picks from his secondary post. The top running back returning to the lineup should be senior Ryan Benedict (5-9, 175), a 600-yard rusher from 2010.

Coach Jim Ellison has things going in the right direction at ARCADIA. In his three years with the Titans, Ellison has directed his team to a 21-13 slate, including a 6-5 mark in '10. And, on the plus side, 30 veterans, including 16 regulars, are back and the best of last season's 6-2 IV should be ready to contribute.

Arcadia's best should include LB Andrew Bradway (5-10, 200), LB Alex Bolton (6-0, 200), DE Jack Olson (6-3, 230), RB Ryan Fochtman (5-10, 175), DB Josh Anderson (5-10, 175), RB Sosaia Maafu (5-11, 205), QB Cole Richardson (6-0, 190), LB Dylan Saiam (6-1, 165), RB Vince Roscoe (5-8, 160) and DE Drake Bennetch (6-2, 218) – all seniors.

Coach Rich Wellbrock had a breakthrough year at DESERT EDGE last fall, when the young Scorpions advanced to the 4A-2 state semifinals before losing a heartbreaking double-overtime 24-17 decision to eventual champion Thunderbird. The week before, in the quarterfinals, Desert Edge had been on the winning side of a 21-20 barnburner versus #1 ranked Cactus. Overall, DEHS wound up 10-3 on the season.

Five mainstays – WR/DB Anthony Fletcher (6-3, 185, Sr.), QB Garrison Garsha (6-1, 160, Sr.), RB/DB Tari Jones (6-0, 175, Sr.), OL/DL Ryan Merriweather (6-0, 260, Sr.) and RB/DB Kyle Woolard (6-2, 190, Jr.) – lead a group of 24 returning lettermen from that outstanding team. Youngsters up from a 7-2 JV will also help.

Veteran Coach Donnie Yantis is still at the controls for PARADISE VALLEY. Although the Trojans were just 2-8 last year, we expect them to bounce back nicely in 2011. With 26 letterwinners returning, PVHS is definitely in the playoff hunt.

The offensive attack will feature QB Ryan Finley (6-4, 178, Jr.), WR Chandler Crow (6-1, 170, Jr.), WR Dakota Ferch (5-10, 175, Sr.) and RB Mikah Ruffino (5-7, 200, Sr.).

Handling the opposition in the trenches will be OT Taylor Cooley (6-4, 280, Sr.), OL Patrick Johnson (6-4, 285, Jr.) and DL Tony Gomez (5-8, 215, Sr.). Defensive standouts are OLB Jack Fattalaheh (6-2, 205, Sr), LB Patrick Davis (6-1, 235, Sr.), DB Aaron King (5-10, 175, Sr.) and Blake Harris (6-2, 210, Jr.).

From 1-9 to 6-5 is a major improvement. That was the difference between 2009 and 2010. GREENWAY even made it to the first round of the 4A-2 playoffs last year before bowing to #6 seed Mingus. K.J. Anthony approaches his third season as head coach for the Demons with high hopes.

Eighteen lettermen, including 10 starters, are preparing for the opening kickoff. Anthony expects leadership and outstanding performance from OT/DT Alfredo Moreno (6-3, 270), OT/DT Billy McGregor (6-1, 240), QB Keith Graham (5-10, 170), OG/DT Gabe Lamb (5-11, 250) and WR/DB Marc Rodriguez (5-6, 160) – all seniors.

Now beginning his fourth year at MOON VALLEY is Coach Mark Smith. He's 15-18 over that period and 84-65 in his head coaching career.

Six performers – OL/DL Deelan Price (6-0, 230, Sr.), OL/DL Cody Edmonds (6-2, 260, Sr.), OL/DL Vinny Trujillo (5-10, 245, Sr.), RB/DB Jac Davis (5-8, 160, Jr.), WR/LB Anthony Smith (5-10, 170, Sr.) and WR/DB T.J. Downs (5-9, 165, Sr.) – will lead, seeking to improve on last year's 5-6 mark.

MARICOPA will face its share of challenges again this season. With the area going through rapid growth a few years back, the Rams have climbed from a 2A school all the way up to the 4A-2 Conference and now into Division III.

Second-year Coach Cory Nenaber has some good athletes; MHS nearly reached the .500 mark last year, winning four and dropping six games. And they have one of the best players ever to wear a Ram uniform in RB/DB Randel Barber (6-1, 185), who could parlay a great senior campaign into a college scholarship to play football. He has 4.5 speed.

Maricopa also has some decent depth, thanks to the presence of RB/LB Brent Miller II (5-11, 200, Sr.), RB/DB Kentrell Coleman (5-11, 180, Jr.), OL/DL Jordan Gusse (6-3, 295, Sr.), OL/DL Mondo Zuniga (6-1, 240, Jr.), TE/LB Franshua Avila (6-0, 180, Jr.), OL/DL Jamar Allen (5-11, 215, Jr.), OL/DL Anthony Martinez

Williams Field's Alex Howard (#4) is one of the finest running backs in Arizona this year, regardless of division (Paynter's Pics).

(5-10, 200, Jr.), WR/DB Cody Keith (5-9, 165, Jr.) and OL/DL Walter Ibarra (5-11, 180, Jr.).

James Carter is also back for his second year as head mentor at SUNRISE MOUNTAIN, where the Mustangs are also trying to climb over .500. They have seven returning regulars and an outstanding kicking game. Ryan Hawkins (6-0, 180) is an all-state-caliber placekicker, while Eric Keena (6-0, 160) is a top-notch punter.

Either Max Sheppard (6-0, 180) or Josh Ackerman Blake (6-2, 200) will be taking snaps from center Scott Petersen (6-3, 240) at the quarterback position. Other players of note are LB Ray Flores (6-0, 200), WR/DB Hayden Pate (5-8, 175), WR/DB Elijah Castro (5-6, 155) and LB Colton Demers (5-11, 200). Pate and Castro are sophomores.

Coach Mike DeLaTorre is off to a promising start at POSTON BUTTE. Playing an independent schedule last year, the Broncos were 7-3. And they have 20 starters returning. The competition will be tough this year, but PBHS could be an up-and-comer.

Top players should be two-way linemen Jacob Jansen (6-3, 235, Sr.), Travis DeFrancisco (6-2, 230, Sr.) and Jordan Davis (6-1, 225, Jr.). That trio will open some holes and provide protection for RB Dustin French (5-9, 187, Jr.), RB Tony Hatfield (5-9, 175, Sr.), WR Cameron Owen (6-0, 175, Jr.) and WR Joel Lynde (5-11, 160, Sr.). Senior Aaron Juarez (6-0, 200) is one of the leaders on defense from his linebacker post.

From Flagstaff head mentor Craig

Holland takes over at AGUA FRIA. In his many years as head coach for FHS, Holland registered a fine 125-85 record. His job is to help the Owls come back from last year's 3-7 ledger. He has 25 letterwinners, including 18 starters, back on campus.

His best should be RB/DB Leandre Vaughn (5-10, 160), RB/DB Keith Huckaby (5-9, 170), QB Robert Singleton (6-0, 165), OL/LB Joel Santeallano (5-10, 200) and WR/DB Anthony Baca (5-7, 140) – all seniors.

Also keep an eye on RB/LB Elijah Goodman (6-0, 180), OL/DL Maynard Adam (6-1, 230), OL/LB Chris Shaver (5-8, 190), WR/LB Mike Price (6-0, 190) and TE/DL Kamryn Dotson (6-0, 220).

"This is our first year of varsity football," said Head Coach Max Ragsdale at CAMPO VERDE. The Coyotes played an independent schedule in 2010 and split their 12 games. The junior varsity was perfect – 9-0 on the year.

So it's a very big year for CVHS and the anticipated standouts are WR/DB Brandon Flores (6-0, 160, Sr.), FB/LB Alex Buppert (6-1, 220, Sr.), OL/DL Matt Sokhy (6-2, 230, Sr.), WR/DB Marquon Claiborne (5-10, 150, Jr.) and FB/LB Sean Appel (6-0, 220, Jr.).

Returning for his fifth year as head coach at GLENDALE is Ben McIvor. It has been tough for the Cardinals to get it going; they were 2-8 last season and stand at 9-32 in McIvor's tenure.

But it's a new year with all new divisions; maybe Glendale can post some more wins this time out. Fifteen varsity veterans return, including four starters on offense and four on defense. A half-dozen performers – RB/SS Primo Colantro (5-8, 160, Jr.), RB Keith Estrada (5-9, 175, Sr.), OG Mike Cisco (6-1, 210, Jr.), OG Robert Postgate (6-1, 200, Jr.), QB/FS Julian Hunt (5-9, 170, Sr.) and OL/DL Jordan Medina (6-2, 220, Sr.) – should play very important roles this fall.

Now part of Division III, Section III football are the TEMPE Buffaloes. "We are very young again," said Head Coach Brian Walker. "We will most likely start only five seniors this year. Although last year didn't end up the way we had hoped, our boys are working hard daily and we are improving."

Walker is looking for solid play from RB/LB Clayton Kelly (5-11, 210, Sr.), RB/S DeQuan Hughes (5-10, 185, Sr.) and OG/LB Greg Mills (6-0, 220, Jr.).

From one of the biggest in Arizona to a more modestly-sized high school of 1,650 students – what happened? Well, a second high school was built, so the CASA GRANDE Cougars find themselves at the Division III level. That's not to say that the competition won't be fierce, but CGHS will no longer be lined up against former 5A-1 powers like Desert Ridge, Mountain Pointe, Chandler, Basha, etc.

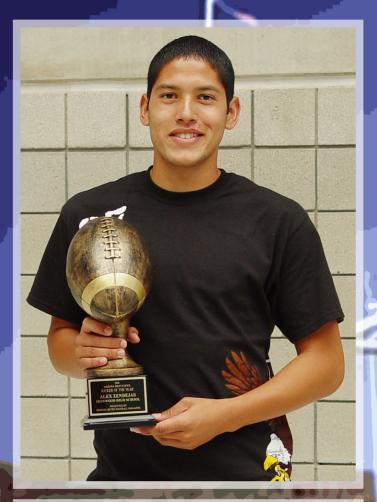

Coach Keith Brown is working on bringing his squad back from their 1-9 campaign. He has 12 starters back, including C/DE Zack Guttierez (6-2, 245, Sr.), WR/RB/DB Tramel Jones (5-11, 165, Sr.), WR/QB/DB Nick Elliott (5-10, 165, Jr.), RB/LB Jack Miller (5-11, 185, Sr.), RB/DB James Colbert (6-0, 190, Jr.), OL/DL Wade Gray (6-3, 290, Sr.), WR/DB Keon Savage (5-11, 170, Sr.), WR/LB A.C. Hernandez (6-0, 170, Sr.), QB Anthony Mitchell (6-4, 180, Sr.), OL/DE Terrance Silas (5-10, 210, Sr.) and RB/DB Stephen Mendincino (5-10, 175, Jr.).

The new high school in Casa Grande is VISTA GRANDE, where former Coolidge coach Carlo Hernandez has begun to build his program. The Spartans played an independent schedule last year, winning the Independent Championship and posting a 5-6 overall record.

An amazing 34 veterans return from that squad, so Hernandez has some familiar faces around. The passing game will feature QB Levi Durnil (5-10, 175) and receivers Daniel Robles (6-2, 180), Ghaleb Al-Saleh (6-4, 225), Deon Blackshear (5-10, 180), Austin Myers (6-1, 170), Sergio Iguagas (5-9, 160) and John Chernicky (6-2, 195). Others to watch include C/NT Mark Valdez, OL/DT Martin Lopez, RB/LB Brandon Ortega, OL/DT Tyler Henry and RB/LB Leo Lopez.

CÓPPER CANYON, under the direction of Michael Segovia, is looking for some more wins. The Aztecs finished 1-9 last year, but CCHS will be much improved if 19 returning lettermen shine this year. Best of the bunch are RB/DB Michael Grubbs, WR/DB Monzel Childress, FB/LB David Roland, QB/FS Steven Lacunza, WR/DB Kalin Robinson, OL/DL Victor Diaz, OL/DL Shaquille Johnson and FB/LB Ralph Mendez.

Buckeye, Mingus in Division IV NW Christian, Arizona Lutheran in Division V

Northwest Christian's Casey Jahn (#44) carried the pigskin 300 times in 2010 for the 2A State Champions. Here he heads upfield against Yuma Catholic in the title game (Paynter's Pics).

The Division IV race should be very, very interesting. A number of teams who haven't played each other before are going to battle it out for top honors. Our pick is BUCKEYE, a team that was named by many opposing coaches as a legitimate contender.

Coach Bobby Barnes and his Hawks have a senior quarterback – always a good start. That would be Alex Alvarez, a 6-1, 205-pounder. And he has plenty of skilled receivers surrounding him, players like Jason Bell (5-11, 180, Sr.), DeAndre Miller (6-2, 215, Jr.), Nick Laramart (5-9, 170, Sr.), Christian Loza (5-9, 165, Sr.), Torres Guy (5-10, 170, So.) and Eric Haynes (6-1, 200, Sr.).

Altogether, 15 lettermen return for BHS from a squad that won four of 10 contests. Heavy contributions are also expected from FB/OLB Cutter Hart (5-11, 205, So.), FB/OLB Brandon Grabowski (6-0, 185, Jr.) and C/DL Dwayne Corbiere (5-11, 230, Sr.).

Another former 4A-2 team, the Dons of CORONADO, may find some success at the Division IV level. In his 11 years at the helm, Coach B.J. Pasquel has posted a steady 61-57 record, including five wins in 11 attempts last fall.

Among the 17 varsity veterans, Pasquel expects the following players to have big senior campaigns: RB/DB Trey Huff (5-8, 153), RB/DB Baylor Cloar (5-11, 175), OL/LB Josiah Newfang (5-10, 188), OL/DL Eddie Armenta (5-11, 287), OL/DL German Rodriguez (6-0, 224) and WR/DB E.J. Perez (5-11, 165).

PAYSON was 5-6 last year, playing in the 3A East Region. Byron Quinlan returns for his second year as head coach of the Longhorns, who count 21 returning letterwinners on their roster this year, including 10 starters. Some members of a fine 7-2 JV will also find some playing time.

Payson's honors candidates should include FB/LB Chance Randall (5-11, 225, Jr.), FB/LB Clint Harper (5-11, 200, Sr.), OG/NT Tanner Savage (5-10, 210, Jr), RB/LB Cade Despain (5-10, 205, Sr.) and TE/LB Cale Novack (6-1, 190, Sr.).

Coach George De La Torre had quite a team at FLORENCE last year. In fact, the Gophers have been really good the last two years. They finished 11-2 in 2010 and the junior varsity was a perfect 9-0. Twenty-one varsity lettermen are back and raring to go, although some key skill position players graduated and will have to be replaced.

Offensively, the returnees are QB Harrison Parker (5-10, 170, Sr.), FB Alan Jones (6-1, 210, Sr.), RB Deshaun Davis (5-11, 185, Sr.), RB Nick Brown (5-10, 180, Jr.), FB Cory Williams (5-11, 245, Sr.), WR Adam Touhey (5-9, 160, Sr.), TE Logan Porter (6-2, 180, Jr.), OL Ivan Morales (5-9, 180, Sr), OL Jonah Monalo (6-0, 190, Sr.), OL Brandon Gay (5-9, 190, Sr.) and OL Marcos Trejo (5-11, 190, Sr.).

One of the defensive mainstays is DB Andrew White (5-10, 165, Sr.), although each of the players listed above will also play defense. Up from that standout junior varsity are RB/DB Roy Johnson, RB/DB Anthony Hilliard, LB Bailey Schell, DE Hathe Sichling, LB Jared Williams, OL Alex Indorff, OL Chris Gant and OL/DL Reshawn Smith. Junior transfers Jusint Cowles (LB) and Prestin Carter (OL/DE) could also see some playing time.

Coach Jim Fairfield has 19 years on the job at FOUNTAIN HILLS and his 123-77 is looking good. The Falcons will face some new opponents this year, but they're certainly well-stocked for the challenges ahead.

Back from last year's 8-4 unit are 13 starters, including a good blend of size and speed. If you see FHHS play this year, be aware of RB/DB Trace Johnson (5-10, 180, Sr.), FB/NG Ivan Kromesdelj (5-10, 180, Sr.), QB/DB Jared Steuber (6-0, 185, Jr.), OT/DT Moses Stifform (6-3, 285, Sr.), K/WR/DB Ty Blunt (6-2, 180, Sr.), FB/LB Zach Rossfeld (5-10, 205, Sr.), DB Jamus Hernandez (5-10, 170, Sr.), OL/DL

Justin Rindal (5-10, 215, Sr.), OL Jesse Sinclair (5-11, 205, Sr.), TE/OLB Steven Hubick (6-0, 195, Sr.) and MLB Ken Simon (6-0, 210, Sr.).

Returning for his second year at WICKENBURG is Head Coach Bob Gonzalo, who guided the Wranglers to a nifty 8-3 ledger last year. Eighteen letterwinners – half of them starters – brighten the outlook this fall.

Very highly regarded are QB/DB Hunter Reaume (6-1, 190, Sr.) and FB/LB Logan Prigge (6-0, 210, Sr.). Additional support should come from TB/DB Logan Pollei (5-9, 170, Sr.), OL/DL Matt Hancock (6-1, 210, Sr.), OL/DL Justin Haas (5-9, 250, Sr.), WR/DB Reyes Macedo (5-9, 175, Sr.), TE/LB Bo Jager (6-2, 200, Jr.) and OL/LB Jordon Mills (5-9, 200, Jr.).

The COMBS Coyotes have been placed in Division IV, Section II with the likes of Coronado, Coolidge, Florence, Safford and Seton Catholic. Coach Michael Vezzosi is beginning his fourth year at CHS and he'll get a good indication early in the year how much his young team has progressed. Twenty lettermen return.

Mainstays are OL/LB Michael
Marquez (6-0, 200), RB/DL Desmond
Powell (6-2, 245), WR/DB Cody Woodard
(5-10, 160), OL/DL Brandon Sanchez (510, 170), WR/DB Anthony Ramirez (5-7, 155), QB/DB Leroy Valentine (6-2, 180),
RB/DB Nathan Lampa (5-10, 175),
WR/DB Nathan Amestoy (5-9, 165),
RB/DB Tyler Fairbanks (5-10, 175) and
OL/DL Dallin Nevitt (6-0, 205). All but Valentine, Lampa and Amestoy are seniors.

There's a new coach at GLOBE; that would be Bert Ford, who comes into a tough situation. The Tigers were winless last year, suffering through a rugged 0-10 campaign. Ford arrives with an impressive 92-53-1 career head coaching record, so maybe he can work some magic for GHS.

The Tigers should be led by OL/LB

Michael Echevarria (5-11, 210, Sr.), OL/DL Craig Jones (5-9, 195, Sr.), FB/LB Johnny Renteria (5-7, 195, Jr.), WR/DB Tyrel Brunson (5-8, 165, Sr.), OL/DL Cody Griffen (6-0, 225, Sr.), WR/DB Nick Reveles (5-11, 155, Sr.), OL/DL Angel Perez (5-8, 150, Sr.), OL/DL Jacob Sanchez (5-10, 175, Sr.) and OL/DL Cody Griffen (6-0, 225, Sr.).

Moving on to Division V, the general consensus is NORTHWEST CHRISTIAN is going to be very hard to beat. With All-Arizona running back Casey Jahn running wild, the Crusaders are definitely formidable.

Jahn, a 6-0, 205-pound senior, carried the pigskin 300 times for 2,583 yards and 32 TDs last year. And he has plenty of talented teammates. In fact, 34 lettermen, including 19 starters, are back from a 12-1 State Championship squad.

"We had 18 players last year make all-conference," said Coach David Inness. Not all of those players return, although you might have a difficult time convincing some Northwest Christian opponents of that.

Besides Jahn, the best of the Crusaders are SS Hayden Anderson (6-3, 180), K Michael Costello (5-9, 165), WR/DB Jeff Kortman (6-0, 185), QB Orbi Gonzales (6-0, 175), FS Trevor Osborn (6-2, 175), OL/DL Johnny Lewis (6-5, 290) and LB Isaac Vogt (6-0, 205) – all seniors except for Osborn. Anderson earned all-state recognition with 65 tackles and 5 interceptions. Osborn had 90 tackles and three picks.

Also keep an eye on TE/OLB Dean Shipp (6-5, 215, Sr.), RB/LB Sammy Serwa (5-9, 170, Jr.), OL/LB James Walworth (6-0, 180, Sr.), and WR/LB James Mosbrucker (6-1, 185, Jr.).

ARIZONA LUTHERAN should contend this fall. Head Coach Scott Indahl is back for a third year. His Coyotes were much improved last year, going from 6-5 in 2009 to 8-3 in 2010.

And 19 big veterans return from last year's club, headed by RB/LB Ben Grams

(5-11, 175), Sr.), OL/LB Jeff English (6-0, 235, Sr.), RB/DB Alfred Erives (5-11, 160, Jr.), TE/DL T.J. Biciolis (6-3, 200, Sr.), Ol/DL C.J. Aveni (5-11, 200, Jr.) and QB/S Kerry English (5-11, 160, Sr.). This could be an exciting year for Arizona Lutheran.

The Dust Devils of SANTA CRUZ didn't have a wonderful 2010 season. In fact, they wound up with just two wins in 10 contests, but it's a whole new year. Eight starters return and it's very possible that better days are just ahead.

Those veterans include LB Anfernee Alexander (6-0, 240), RB/LB Luis Cazares (5-10, 190), RB/DB Thomas Borkenhagen (6-1, 185), OL/DL David Vasquez (5-9, 190), OL/DL Jose Tafoya (5-10, 240), REC/DB Victor Lopez (5-7, 135), OL/DL Miguel Diaz (5-11, 250) and OL/DL Tony Belloc (5-9, 180) – all seniors but Borkenhagen.

Next up are the Trojans of VALLEY CHRISTIAN. Coach Kevin Allen welcomes back 15 letterwinners from a 2010 team that won six and lost four. This will be Allen's second year at VCHS and he's pleased to have his quarterback returning.

Senior Josh Pineda (5-7, 150) is a good one – he threw for 739 yards and eight TDs last year – and will get the ball to the likes of RB/DB Bo Corbin (5-7, 155, Sr), RB/LB Jake Feenstra (5-9, 160, Sr.), RB/S Zack Loganecker (5-11, 160, Sr.), WR Ben Marshall (6-0, 180, Sr.), TE Matt Roy (6-0, 175, Sr.) and RB James Durst (6-0, 170, Sr.).

Also contributing will be OL/LB Dillon Lachhan (5-9, 190, Sr.), OL/LB Justin Maples (5-9, 200, Jr.) and OL/DL Michael Bertola (6-0, 220, Sr.).

Head Coach Willie Dudley and his SCOTTSDALE CHRISTIAN Eagles are looking forward to another good year in 2011. And why not? The SCA varsity was 8-3 and the junior varsity posted an 8-0 slate.

Although just four starters return from that team, there are some young players ready to take over. Dudley anticipates that WR Andrew Prestson (6-2, 170, Sr.), OL/LB Grant Uphaus (6-1, 215, Jr.), OL/DL Jay McNair (6-7, 190, Sr.), RB/LB Levi Derry (5-9, 160, So.), QB/CB Luke O'Neill (5-9, 165, Jr.), RB/LB Matt Thompson (5-11, 177, Jr.), OL/DL Nick Dooley (6-8, 323, Sr.) and WR/FS Sam Fillingame (6-3, 185, Jr.) will play well this time out.

The football program building process is going on at SAN TAN FOOTHILLS, where veteran Coach Rodger Schenks is hard at work. The Sabercats registered a 3-7 record in 2010; 14 starters are back for another year and would love nothing more than to reach or surpass the .500 mark in 2011.

Schenks is relying on the following players to lead STFHS: OL/DL Tyler Howes (6-6, 250, Sr.), RB/LB Carlos Melendez (5-9, 180, Sr.), WR/LB Julian Naverrete (6-1, 205, Sr.), QB/DB Mychael Bruce (6-2, 170, Sr.), WR/DB Jason Gale (5-8, 140, Sr.), OL/DL Jake Lee (6-2, 220, Jr.), OL/DL James Leep (6-3, 245, Sr.), TE/LB Zach Denault (5-10, 175, Sr.), OL/DL Austin Garcia (5-9, 215, Sr.), WR/DB Marius Bruce (6-1, 155, Jr.) and WR/DB Trey Lopez (5-9, 155, Jr.).

At MIAMI, Coach George Medrano has a whopping 23 lettermen, including 17 starters, back for another year. The Vandals could be poised to easily surpass last season's steady 6-5 ledger.

Skill position performers like RB/DB Gabe Bejarano (5-9, 170, Jr.), REC/DB Alvaro Anaya (6-0, 170, Sr.), TE/DL Austin Price (6-3, 210, Sr.), RB/QB/DB Nathan Medina (5-9, 170, Jr.), QB/LB Shawn Barrowdale (6-0, 190, So.), RB/LB Nic Garcia (6-0, 170, Jr.) and RB/LB Jason Hundley (6-0, 190, Sr.) dominate the list of returning players. Bejarano and Anaya should really be terrific this year.

In the trenches, the stalwarts are OL/DL Cody Bagnell (6-3, 250, Jr.), C/LB Pat O'Connor (5-9, 190, Sr.) and OL/DL Billy Tower (6-3, 260, Jr.).

Returning for his second year at WESTWIND ACADEMY is Mike

Epperson, who sports a 67-52 career head coaching record. Unfortunately, the Warriors wound up with a 1-9 record last fall, but, with 11 starters back, the chance for improvement is definitely there.

Epperson thinks highly of TB/DB Rajee Godwin (5-10, 195, Sr.), C/DE Preston Whitehead (6-0, 187, Sr.), QB/DB Nick Galaviz (5-10, 166, Jr.), WB/DB Jesus Vargas (5-11, 171, Jr.), OT/DT Mario Vasquez (6-1, 191, Jr.), FB/DE Zack Galaviz (5-9, 173, Sr.), TB/DB Andres Echeveria (5-9, 168, Sr.) and OT/LB Drew Coplin (6-0, 179, Sr.). Transfer WR/DB Leonard Wilson (6-2, 188, Sr.) could also push for playing time.

Division VI football replaces the old 1A; it's eight-man football. And one of the contenders for state honors is VALLEY LUTHERAN, under the direction of Bob Wolf. The Flames were 7-4 last year and five starters are back in uniform, including senior standout Dmitri O'Brien, a 6-2, 190-pound running back-cornerback.

The quarterback figures to be junior Alex Riedel (5-9, 155). Other players of note are C/LB Saige Lopez (5-10, 190, Sr.), OG/DT Lydon La Joie (6-1, 215, Sr.), TE/DE Troy Parsons (6-2, 190, Jr.), TE/DE Austin Miller (6-3, 190, Jr.), WR/CB Aaron Koehne (6-1, 170, Jr.) and WR/FS Sam Gabrielson (5-8, 145, Jr.).

Head Coach Ryan Palmer guided his SUPERIOR Panthers to a respectable 6-4 record last year and, with 13 returnees, another winning record could be just around the corner.

His best returning player might be WR/DE Anthony Flores, a 6-0, 185-pound senior. Other key contributors should be QB/OLB Martin Granillo (6-0, 180, Sr.), RB/S Chris Grap (5-6, 160, Sr.), OG/NG Jordan Romero (5-7, 170, Sr.), DB Peter Palacio (5-6, 155, Sr.), WR/MLB Mario Paddilla (5-6, 170, Jr.) and WR/DB Louie Fuentes (5-8, 165, Jr.).

Brian Cole assumes the head coaching position at JOY CHRISTIAN, where the Eagles won three of eight games last season. Nine starters – namely RB/LB Cody Wahlers (6-1, 185, Sr.), WR/LB Josh Wahlers (6-2, 180, Sr.), WR/DB Edward Beasley (6-1, 180, Sr.), DE Thomas Madrid (5-10, 165, So.), TE/LB Trevor Deason (6-0, 180, Jr.), RB/DB Jerardo Samarripas (5-9, 170, Jr.), QB Nich Henderson (5-11, 170, So.), OL/DL Billy Nguyen (6-0, 220, So.) and OL/DL Isaiah Herrera (5-11, 215, So.) – return and will provide leadership for the rest of the team.
